Visual material for the Speaking test colour section I–VIII

To the student

This book is for candidates preparing for the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations Preliminary English Test (PET), and gives practice in all the written and oral papers. It contains four complete tests based on recent PET papers. PET tests Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking.

PAPER 1 (1 hour and 30 minutes)

Reading

There are 35 questions in five Parts. You have to choose the right answer out of three or four options, match questions to texts or show that you think a sentence about a text is correct or incorrect.

Writing

There are three Parts: sentence transformations, a short message of 35–45 words and a letter or story of about 100 words.

PAPER 2 (about 35 minutes, including 6 minutes to transfer answers)

Listening

There are four Parts, and you will hear each of them twice. As you listen, you write your answers on the question paper. At the end, you have 6 minutes to copy your answers onto the answer sheet.

PAPER 3 (10–12 minutes for each pair of candidates)

Speaking

You take the Speaking test with another candidate. There are two examiners in the room. One examiner talks to you. This examiner sometimes asks you questions and sometimes asks you to talk to the other candidate. The other examiner listens to you. Both examiners give you marks. During the test the examiner gives you and your partner photographs and other pictures to look at and to talk about.

Preparing for PET by yourself

Reading

Have a look at some English language magazines, and read some articles about things that interest you. Look through some stories written in simplified English in your library or bookshop. Choose the ones which are interesting and just a little difficult for you, and guess the words you may not know before you look them up in your dictionary.

Writing

It can be very helpful to keep a diary in English, so that you find and learn the words that really mean something to you. You may also want to find an English-speaking penfriend or e-pal, or to exchange letters or e-mails in English with a friend who is learning with you. In those letters/e-mails you can describe something interesting you have done, what you are doing at present or talk about your plans. In that way everything you practise will be real for you and not just an exercise.

Listening

Watch any interesting English language films at your cinema, or on TV or video whenever you can. Watch or listen to any English language teaching programmes on TV or radio. (A free list of such programmes is available from the BBC, Programme Guides, Bush House, PO Box 76, London WC2B 4PH, United Kingdom.) Listen to learning materials on cassette, so that you can hear many different kinds of voices. You may also hear people speaking English in shops, restaurants or hotels, or a tourist guide telling English-speaking visitors about places of interest in your area.

Speaking

Practise talking English with a friend who is also learning, and arrange to spend time doing this regularly. Ask each other questions, tell each other what you have enjoyed doing, talk about your daily lives, your plans, your likes and dislikes – in English. It really does get easier, once you start practising!

PART 2

Questions 6–10

- The people below all want to go to the cinema.
- On the opposite page there are descriptions of eight films.
- Decide which film (letters A–H) would be the most suitable for each person or people (numbers 6–10).
- For each of these numbers mark the correct letter on your answer sheet.

Jo is studying art at university. She usually goes to the cinema on Friday evenings. She enjoys films that are based on real life and from which she can learn something.

Sheila has decided to take her mother to the cinema for her birthday. They both like love stories that have happy endings.

Brian is a hard-working medical student. He doesn't have very much free time, but he likes going to the cinema to relax, and enjoys a good laugh.

Adam wants to take his 8-year-old son Mark to the cinema at the weekend. They want to see a film with plenty of excitement.

10

Harry and Joyce go to the cinema about twice a month. They particularly like detective stories and do not pay much attention to which actors are in the film.

A The Delivery

Jim Treace stars in this well-known comedy about two workmen who have to deliver a long piece of wood to a house. But unfortunately the performances are poor, and the film is too long for such a simple joke.

B And Tomorrow We Find You

A fast-moving adult story about a San Francisco policeman in danger. Based on a real-life happening, it keeps you guessing right until the last minute. Although there are no big stars, there are some fine performances.

C The Ends of the Earth

A story based on a real-life journey to the South Pole. This film contains some quite wonderful wildlife photography – make sure you see it while you have the chance, or you'll be sorry.

D Island of Fire

You get spectacular scenery and lots of thrills in this action-packed story, in which a young sea-captain rescues terrified villagers from a volcanic island in the South Seas.

E Out of School

Here we live through a day in the life of an American teenager who has problems not only with his parents and their boring friends but also with his first girlfriend who just doesn't seem to understand him.

F A Time of Silence

Don't forget your handkerchief for this story of a young college boy and girl who manage to survive all the pressures of modern life. And what an unforgettable wedding scene!

G A Private Party

A wonderfully funny comedy, which takes place in the 1940s. A reporter and his very worried wife try to save a sheep from the local butcher. The actors really make the most of this clever script.

H Who Shot Malone?

It's a surprise to see so many famous names wasting their time in this dull detective story. In the end you find yourself asking, 'Who cares?'

PART 4

Questions 21–25

- Read the text and questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D – on your answer sheet.

A month ago I had no idea that on a Saturday afternoon in November I'd be hanging 30 metres above the ground and enjoying it. Now I looked down at the river far below me, and realised why people love rock-climbing.

My friend Matt and I had arrived at the Activity Centre on Friday evening. The accommodation wasn't wonderful, but we had everything we needed (beds, blankets, food), and we were pleased to be out of the city and in the fresh air.

On Saturday morning we met the other ten members of our group. Cameron had come along with two friends, Kevin and Simon, while sisters Carole and Lynn had come with Amanda. We had come from various places and none of us knew the area.

We knew we were going to spend the weekend outdoors, but none of us was sure exactly how. Half of us spent the morning caving while the others went rock-climbing and then we changed at lunchtime. Matt and I went to the caves first. Climbing out was harder than going in, but after a good deal of pushing, we were out at last – covered in mud but pleased and excited by what we'd done.

21 What is the writer trying to do in the text?

A advertise the Activity Centre

B describe some people she met

C explain how to do certain outdoor sports

D say how she spent some free time

22 What can the reader learn from the text?

A when to depend on other people at the Centre

B how to apply for a place at the Centre

C what sort of activities you can experience at the Centre

D which time of year is best to attend the Centre

23 How do you think the writer might describe her weekend?

A interesting
B relaxing
C frightening
D unpleasant

24 What do we learn about the group?

A Some of them had been there before.
B They had already chosen their preferred activities.
C Some of them already knew each other.
D They came from the same city.

25 Which of the following advertisements describes the Activity Centre?

A

Questions 21–25

- Read the text and questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D – on your answer sheet.

Winter Driving

Winter is dangerous because it's so difficult to know what is going to happen and accidents take place so easily. Fog can be waiting to meet you over the top of a hill. Ice might be hiding beneath the melting snow, waiting to send you off the road. The car coming towards you may suddenly slide across the road.

Rule Number One for driving on icy roads is to drive smoothly. Uneven movements can make a car suddenly very difficult to control. So every time you either turn the wheel, touch the brakes or increase your speed, you must be as gentle and slow as possible. Imagine you are driving with a full cup of hot coffee on the seat next to you. Drive so that you wouldn't spill it.

Rule Number Two is to pay attention to what might happen. The more ice there is, the further down the road you have to look. Test how long it takes to stop by gently braking. Remember that you may be driving more quickly than you think. In general, allow double your normal stopping distance when the road is wet, three times this distance on snow, and even more on ice. Try to stay in control of your car at all times and you will avoid trouble.

11 The River Wensum flows through East Anglia.

12 People have lived by the River Wensum for at least 2000 years.

13 In the 11th century, Norwich was a small village.

14 Norwich has been a city since its first cathedral was built.

15 Norwich has always been one of the smallest English cities.

16 There are more than 50 churches in Norwich.

17 The number of students in Norwich is increasing.

18 The Norwich City football team is called 'The Canaries' because of the colours the players wear.

19 'The Castle Mall' took more than two years to build.

20 Norwich people still like using the old market as well as shopping in 'The Castle Mall'.

Norwich

Norwich, the capital of the part of Britain known as East Anglia, has existed as a place to live for more than two thousand years. It began as a small village beside the River Wensum. At the time of the Norman invasion in 1066 it had grown to become one of the largest towns in England.

With two cathedrals and a mosque, Norwich has long been a popular centre for various religions. The first cathedral was built in 1095 and has recently celebrated its 900th anniversary, while Norwich itself had a year of celebration in 1994 to mark the 800th anniversary of the city receiving a Royal Charter. This allowed it to be called a city and to govern itself independently.

Today, in comparison with places like London or Manchester, Norwich is quite small, with a population of around 150,000, but in the 16th century Norwich was the second city of England. It continued to grow for the next 300 years and got richer and richer, becoming famous for having as many churches as there are weeks in the year and as many pubs as there are days in the year.

Nowadays, there are far fewer churches and pubs, but in 1964 the University of East Anglia was built in Norwich. With its fast-growing student population and its success as a modern commercial centre (Norwich is the biggest centre for insurance services outside London), the city now has a wide choice of entertainment: theatres, cinemas, nightclubs, busy cafés, excellent restaurants, and a number of arts and leisure centres. There is also a football team, whose colours are green and yellow. The team is known as 'The Canaries', though nobody can be sure why.

Now the city's attractions include another important development, a modern shopping centre called 'The Castle Mall'. The people of Norwich lived with a very large hole in the middle of their city for over two years, as builders dug up the main car park. Lorries moved nearly a million tons of earth so that the roof of the Mall could become a city centre park, with attractive water pools and hundreds of trees. But the local people are really pleased that the old open market remains, right in the heart of the city and next to the new development. Both areas continue to do good business, proving that Norwich has managed to mix the best of the old and the new.

Questions 21–25

- Read the text and questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D – on your answer sheet.

When I opened the first 'Body Shop' in 1976 my only object was to earn enough to feed my children. Today 'The Body Shop' is an international company rapidly growing all around the world. In the years since we began I have learned a lot. Much of what I have learned will be found in this book, for I believe that we, as a company, have something worth saying about how to run a successful business without giving up what we really believe in.

It's not a normal business book, nor is it just about my life. The message is that to succeed in business you have to be different. Business can be fun, a business can be run with love and it can do good. In business, as in life, I need to enjoy myself, to have a feeling of family and to feel excited by the unexpected. I have always wanted the people who work for 'The Body Shop' to feel the same way.

Now this book sends these ideas of mine out into the world, makes them public. I'd like to think there are no limits to our 'family', no limits to what can be done. I find that an exciting thought. I hope you do, too.

21 What is the writer's main purpose in writing this text?

A to tell the reader her life story
B to introduce her ideas to the reader
C to explain how international companies operate
D to tell the reader how she brought up a family

22 What would someone learn from this text?

A how to make a lot of money
B how to write a book about business
C what the writer's family is like
D what the writer's book is about

23 How does the writer feel about the business she runs?

A She doesn't care about success if her children are fed.
B She just runs it for her own entertainment.
C It is not like any other company.
D It is likely to become even more successful.

24 What kind of workers does the writer like to employ?

A workers who can explain her ideas
B workers who get on well with the public
C workers who have the same attitudes as she does
D workers who have their own families

25 What kind of person does the writer seem to be?

A She seems to be someone with strong opinions.
B She doesn't seem to be very confident.
C She is mainly interested in making money.
D She sees running a business as just a job.

About the Speaking test

The Speaking test lasts about 10 to 12 minutes. You take the test with another candidate. There are two examiners in the room. One examiner talks to you and the other examiner listens to you. Both the examiners give you marks.

Part 1

The examiners introduce themselves and then one examiner asks you and your partner to say your names and spell them. This examiner then asks you questions about yourself, your daily life, interests, etc.

Part 2

The examiner asks you to talk about something together and gives you a drawing to help you.

Part 3

You each have a chance to talk by yourselves. The examiner gives you a colour photograph to look at and asks you to talk about it. When you have finished talking, the examiner gives your partner a different photograph to look at and to talk about.

Part 4

The examiner asks you and your partner to say more about the subject of the photographs in Part 3. You may be asked to give your opinion or to talk about something that has happened to you.

NENE VALLEY RAILWAY

About the Railway

The twelve kilometre-long Nene Valley Railway passes through the lovely Nene Park, from an Eastern terminus at Peterborough to the Railway's headquarters at Wansford (next to the A1 main road). A two-kilometre extension of the Railway takes passengers through Wansford Tunnel to the quiet beauty of Yarwell, the present Western end of the line.

Fares: adult £10.00, child £5.00, Family Fare (up to 2 adults and 3 children) £25.00. Special prices may apply on public holidays.

Nene Park

With golf courses and a large Caravan Club site, why not make it a complete day out for the family by visiting Nene Park? There are thousands of hectares of public parkland with boating lakes, picnic areas and a nature reserve, as well as a miniature railway.

Wansford

Wansford Station is the home of a unique collection of historic trains from many parts of Europe. This includes such famous types as the elegant De Glen Compound locomotive from France, and the German Class 52 Kriegslok (the largest working steam engine in Britain) as well as '92 Squadron' and 'Mayflower' which were built in Britain. You can see these engines all year round whether or not the Nene Valley Railway is running. The buffet, bar and souvenir shop, however, are only open on days when the train is running. A site entrance fee of £2.00 for adults and £1.00 for children is charged at Wansford.

A Famous Railway

Nene Valley Railway is a favourite with film makers, due in particular to its ability to take on the appearance of a railway in any part of Europe. Octopussy, in the series of James Bond movies, is a good example of what can be done. Come and see where it was filmed.

Services for Schools

The Railway runs special timetable services from May to July to allow school groups to visit the railway and for teachers to set projects. The work can be done while pupils are here or in the classroom. A special educational pack is available, price £1.50 plus postage. At other times of the year, school parties can hire the train ('Teddy Bear') with up to 3 carriages to travel along the Railway on non-service days. One month's prior booking is requested. There are special low fares for groups of 60 or more pupils. Telephone 01780 784444 for further information.

Private Hire of Trains

The Railway is a popular place for special family occasions or a company visit. It can provide the setting for a most interesting afternoon or evening out. Special programmes can be arranged to meet your wishes to include buffet, bar, entertainment, discos, etc. For further information please contact the General Manager at Wansford Station.

PART 4

Questions 21–25

- Read the text and questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D – on your answer sheet.

Some people have complained about this year's collection, New Writing 3, although I cannot understand why. Surely 500 pages of original writing of this quality, for £6.99, is pretty amazing?

Fiction – both parts of novels and complete short stories – makes up most of the book. There are some enjoyable pieces by famous writers, such as Candia McWilliam and Rose Tremain. It's a strange fact that the less well-known people seem to have written mainly about food. Take my advice about Jane Harris's Those Nails – this piece should definitely not be read just after meals. It contains some very unpleasant scenes which could turn your stomach!

There is fine work from nineteen poets, including R. S. Thomas and John Burnside. There are pieces from novels-in-progress by Jim Crace and Jane Rogers. Finally, there is a little non-fiction, which includes a very funny article by Alan Rusbridger on certain newspapers, and an extraordinary piece about herself from Ursula Owen. This is an exceptional collection and I for one can't wait to see what next year's choice will include.

21 What is the writer trying to do in the text?

A give her opinions about a new book
B give some information about new writers
C give some advice to writers
D give her opinion of newspaper journalists

22 Why would somebody read the text?

A to find out more details about something
B to learn what next year's collection will contain
C to find out about Alan Rusbridger's new novel
D to decide whether to complain about something

23 What does the writer think of New Writing 3?

A It's too long.
B It's very amusing.
C It's very good.
D It's too serious.

24 How might you feel after reading Jane Harris's piece?

A hungry
B excited
C unhappy
D sick

25 Which of the following describes New Writing 3?

A

Great value:
two novels, poems and articles for only £6.99

B

Great value:
the best of new writing for only £6.99

C

Great value:
poems by Tremain, Harris and Burnside for only £6.99

D

Great value:
newspapers for a whole year for only £6.99

Part 2

Task-specific Mark scheme
The content elements that need to be covered are:

i an apology
ii an explanation for the delay
iii a suggestion for when Jo could come in the future.

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE A (Test 1, Question 6: Card to Jo)

Dear Jo
As you know, the other day I invited you next month. I'm sorry but I have to delay it because there is may friend's wedding party that day.
Could you come here on 22th of October.
Yours sincerely
Kyoko

Examiner Comments

This is a very good answer. All three content elements are covered appropriately and within the word limit. Language errors are present, but they are minor and do not affect the message being clearly communicated to the reader.

Band: 5

SAMPLE B (Test 1, Question 6: Card to Jo)

Dear Jo
First of all, I apologise to you for delay to visit. I have to go to library next month, because I have some exams. So, I must study for exam at daytime with my class mate. But in the night time, I'll be free for you.
I suggest that you come to my house and stay with me.
When would you be convenient to come?
I'll happy to you're comming.
See you later

Examiner Comments

In this script, all three content elements are attempted but the third one (suggest when it would be convenient for Jo to come) has been inadequately dealt with – the candidate does include a general comment that night-time is when he'll be free, but then asks Jo, rather than suggesting when it would be convenient. The message also requires some effort by the reader, due to the language errors.

Band: 3

SAMPLE C (Test 1, Question 6: Card to Jo)

Hi Jo!

How are you? I hope you are fine. I'm fine, but I miss you so much. I think if I see you again, I'll be much happy.

Next month I'm not working, and my parents going to holiday. So I'll be alone! I have lots of plan for next month, If you can come my house.

Before come, please send me your flyt delayes, because I'll collect to you at airport.

I'm waiting your repley.

I'm forward seeing you again.

Love, Gamze

Examiner Comments

This is a poor attempt, with little relevance to the task set. It appears that the initial rubric has been disregarded or misunderstood, as the content is about Jo visiting next month. Similarly, the first two bullet points have been ignored. The answer is also much too long at around 90 words, failing to demonstrate the ability to write a short message.

Band: 1

Part 3

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE D (Test 1, Question 7: 'Carla looked at the car in surprise')

Carla looked at the car in surprise. She said "Oh my God! that car is wonderful".
Her father promised her a car like that, but he forgot it, at least she told me it.

Carla is too young to drive a car, I think that her father should wait some years to give her a car, but she make up her mind and asked her father every day "where the car is, I want it", you promised for me".

Now her father want that I try to change her mind, because he think is too dangeous for her.

I said I will try, but I don't promis that I will be able to do it.

Examiner Comments

This answer is ambitious, but flawed by a number of mostly non-impeding errors in, for example, tenses, subject-verb agreement, question formation and spelling. The story is well organised and the range of structures and vocabulary used is more than adequate. With fewer errors, the script would have been placed in Band 4.

Band: 3

SAMPLE E (Test 1, Question 7: 'Carla looked at the car in surprise')

Carla looked at the car in surprise.
When the driver noticed her, it was so late. She woke up at the driver's house in two or three hours. She asked him why he hadn't called an ambalance, but soon she found the answer before he explaines because he looks so young. She could guess that he had been driving without the license.
They talked each other about themselves. They fell in love by the time she leaves his house. They made a promise to see again before saying good-bye.

Examiner Comments

This is a good attempt, requiring only a little effort by the reader. The writing is ambitious, and reasonably well organised, although would benefit from more linking of sentences. There is evidence of a wide range of structures, including the past perfect continuous tense and good use of pronouns. A range of vocabulary is attempted, though spelling is not always accurate.

Band: 4

SAMPLE F (Test 1, Question 7: 'Carla looked at the car in surprise')

Carla looked at the car in surprise. Because there were too many people. Almost 12 people was in the car. Carla said that how they could do. And A few minute later, a big man drived the car slow. And then he suddenly stoped the car and shouted to people in the car that whe we didn't walk Because of his shouting, some people walked and another people went by the car, at last. All in the street laught.

Examiner Comments

The story requires some effort by the reader, mainly due to flawed sentence structure and a number of errors, some of which impede communication, for example, Carla said that how they could do. However, the range used is adequate to the task, so this answer would be placed at the top of Band 2.

Band: 2

SAMPLE G (Test 1, Question 8: 'The last film I saw')

The last film I saw is "Austin Powers in Gold Member". It was absolutely fantastic!! I've seen "Austin Powers 2". It was great too. But "Austin Powers 3" is greatest than "2". It was in Tom Cruse, Kevin Spacy and so on. Also it was in Tokyo. It was so strange. For example, Mt. Fuji isn't in Tokyo. But in the film, it was in Tokyo. How funny! Of course, I know you don't know about Japan very much, But it is still interesting, I think. As if you haven't seen "Austin Powers 1 and 2", you will enjoy this film. Because I want to see it again! I recommed it to you. You should see it.

Examiner Comments

This is an adequate attempt at the task, despite the absence of opening and closing letter formulae. The letter is reasonably well organised, with some linking of sentences. The range of structures and vocabulary used is adequate and all errors are non-impeding.

Band: 3

SAMPLE H (Test 1, Question 8: 'The last film I saw')

Hi, mate!!
How's it going? I was very busy this week. But. You know that I love films. I saw the film with the name of 'Bend it like Beckham' It's a very interesting film about football. An indian girl who wanted to play football was the main story. Her parents don't let her play. But she's a very good football player, she's better than a boy who doesn't know how to play football. Finally, she went to America for proffesional league. Santa Barbara. I'm not sure of the team name. Anyway, it's a happy ending for her and for her family.
I recomended the film to Mike and Mike saw the film. He loved it. So I do recomend to you the film 'Bend it like Beckham'.
If I were you, I'd go the cinema right now. Have a good weekend. See you soon.
Bye.

Examiner Comments

This is a very good answer, showing confident and ambitious use of language. The letter is well organised, with good linking of sentences. There is a wide range of structures, including If I were you, I'd ... and vocabulary, as well as appropriate expressions, for example happy ending. Errors are minor and mainly due to ambition.

Band: 5

SAMPLE I (Test 1, Question 8: 'The last film I saw')

Hello dear Maria,
In your last letter you asked me to write to you about the last film which I've seen. It was „Gladiator" It's a very interesting film with Russel Crow I love this actor, you knew that. But is not only because of him. I also love to watch histori films.

Examiner Comments

This is an inadequate attempt at the task, due to its length (the answer appears unfinished and is only 50 words long). There is some evidence of range in the language used and the task has been addressed.

PART 1 Now open your question paper and look at Part 1.

There are seven questions in this part. For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick in the box below it.

Before we start, here is an example.

What's the time?

Woman: Have you got the time?
Man: Yes, it's twenty past three.

[pause]

The first picture is correct so there is a tick in box A.

Look at the three pictures for question 1 now.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear each recording twice.

One. Where will the girls meet?

Girl 1: Will you meet me in the park?
Girl 2: OK. Where? By the entrance?
Girl 1: No, at the ice-cream kiosk. You know, the one by the lake.
Girl 2: OK.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Two. Which chair does the man want?

Man: Good afternoon. Can you show me your office chairs? I'm looking for something with a high back and arms.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Three. Which picture shows what the girls need?

Girl 1: Now, have we got everything? Flour, butter, a lemon, milk …
Girl 2: Don't we need eggs?
Girl 1: Of course! Two eggs.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Four. Which picture shows what happened?

Woman: Look at that mirror – how did it get broken?
Boy: We were playing ball and I missed it.
Woman: I've told you before you are not to play ball in the house. Well, you will both have to buy a new mirror.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Five. What is Sarah's mother doing?

Sarah: When can we go out, Mum?
Mother: In about half an hour, Sarah, when I've finished doing the washing-up.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Six. What luggage is the man taking on holiday?

Woman: I thought you were only taking two suitcases on holiday with you?
Man: Well, I was, but I decided to take my overnight bag as well. I couldn't get everything into two cases and there's no way I could carry a third!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Seven. Which photograph does the man like?

Man: I'm really disappointed with my holiday photos. The only good one is the one of us all standing together on the clifftop looking down at the beach.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

That is the end of Part 1.

[pause]

PART 2 Now turn to Part 2, questions 8–13.

You will hear part of a radio programme about classical music.

For each question, put a tick in the correct box. You now have 45 seconds to look at the questions for Part 2.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Presenter: … and now if you're a regular listener to this programme, you'll know that it's time for our weekly competition. Last week's prize of two theatre tickets was won by Bill Martins. Congratulations, Bill. I hope you've received your tickets by now.

This week we're offering a classical CD to the first listener who can name the piece of music and the person who wrote it. I'm going to play the piece in a few minutes, but before I do, you need to get a pencil and a piece of paper, as I'm going to give you some help which should make your job a little easier. Are you ready? Right. Now, listen carefully, as you might be this week's lucky winner.

Although the person who wrote this piece of classical music was born in Italy, his parents were French and he spent most of his life in Spain. Have you got that? On to the second point: there is also a famous play which has the same title as this music and which is usually performed in the open air – in the summer. Any idea yet? I should warn you that it's not that easy.

Anyway for the next point. When this piece of music was first performed, many people in the audience got up and walked out. At the end they say there was complete silence, which I'm sure wasn't very pleasant for the writer. People thought the music was terrible and complained about wasting their money. It's amazing really, when you think how popular it is today.

And now for the last point. Part of this music has been used for an advertisement which you can see on television. I'm sure when you hear the music, you'll know what the advertisement is for. I'm not going to tell you what product it advertises, as that would almost certainly give you the answer! You can also see the advert in a lot of magazines and I think from next month this advert will also be on your cinema screens.

So that's four things to remember. And the phone number to ring if you can give us the title of the music and the name of the man who wrote it is 0018 937 224. And the piece of music is coming up now …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 2.

[pause]

PART 3

Now turn to Part 3, questions 14–19.

You will hear a radio programme in which young people from different parts of the country are interviewed.

For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

You now have 20 seconds to look at Part 3.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Man: Hello and welcome to our series about young people living in different parts of the country. Today you'll hear Mike Davis, who lives in Hereford, telling you something about his life.

Boy: Hello. I'm 13 years old and I go to Stanley School. I'm in Form 3, and I'm really interested in science but I find maths and especially English a bit hard. I'm good at running and I've run for the school team in the 800 metres.

My dad sells farm machinery. We live in the country about four miles from school, so I get to school by bicycle. My uncle has a farm and I spend most of my free time helping out there. He's got 50 cows and I like to help him with them. I help to do the milking every Saturday and sometimes I have to clean the cowshed. It's hard work, but it's good to see everything looking clean. I painted it white last summer – I'm good at painting. My uncle's got a tractor and he says I can drive it when I'm 15. I'm looking forward to that.

On Mondays I go to the Young Farmers' Group which I've belonged to since I was 10. It's mostly fun but we also learn things, like how to look after animals properly.

I definitely want to work in the countryside when I leave school. I wouldn't like to live in a town or sit in an office all day. My father thinks I should work in his business, but I want to be like my uncle and have my own farm one day. My mother says I'll have to go to agricultural college first, so I'm going to work hard to pass all my exams.

Man: Thank you, Mike, …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 3.

[pause]

PART 4

Now turn to Part 4, questions 20–25.

Look at the six sentences for this part. You will hear a conversation between a boy, Jim, and his mother.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick in the box under B for NO.

You now have 20 seconds to look at the questions for Part 4.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Jim: Mum, my old bicycle needs to be repaired again.

Mother: Well then, why don't you think of buying a new one, Jim?

Jim: You know, I'd really like to buy one of those mountain bikes.

Mother: Well, what's stopping you?

Jim: Do you know how much they cost? At least £300. Where can I find that kind of money?

Mother: You could save the money. If you saved £5 a week, you would have the money you need in, let me see … just over a year.

Jim: Just over a year! But I want a new bike now. It's something I really need. I mean, I use my bike to go to college every day.

Mother: But what's so special about a mountain bike? Why do you have to have one of those? There aren't any mountains around here. Isn't an ordinary bike cheaper?

Jim: Yes. But mountain bikes are stronger, and they're better at going up hills.

Mother: We don't even have any hills near us. How much does an ordinary bike cost?

Jim: I don't know … Oh, I suppose you can get quite a good one for about £150.

Mother: Well, that sounds more reasonable. If you save £5 a week, you'll have enough money in about six months.

Jim: That won't help me get to college next term!

Mother: I really think you should learn to save some money. I'll tell you what I'll do. If you manage to save £100, I'll give you the rest. That way you'll be riding a new bike in a few months. Go and get the old one repaired, and bring the bill to me.

Jim: Thanks, Mum. I suppose I'll just have to ride my old bike for a little longer. I must say I had hoped to be able to get a new one straight away. It's going to take me ages to save up. I wish …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 4.

[pause]

You now have six minutes to check and copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

Note: Teacher, stop the tape here and time six minutes. Remind students when there is one minute remaining.

[pause]

That is the end of the test.

Task-specific Mark scheme

The e-mail should incorporate the following points:

i expression of thanks for stay
ii what was most enjoyable about the countryside
iii suggestion for where to meet next time.

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE A (Test 2, Question 6: e-mail to friends)

Hi,
Thank you for nice days with you. I most enjoyed to swim in the nice sea. So if you have a time, I'd like to see you again. Shall we go to France next time?
Love Tomoko

Examiner Comments

All three content elements are adequately dealt with, within the word limit. However, the reference to swimming in the sea is not appropriate to the 'countryside' specified in the rubric and second bullet point (though this may be a language error, for 'lake'). On the whole, the message is communicated successfully. It is not necessary for candidates to include the format details of an e-mail.

Band: 4

SAMPLE B (Test 2, Question 6: e-mail to friends)

Hello! How's it going? I'm fine. I could enjoy when I went to the countryside with you because there were a lot of nature. I couldn't see them when I lived in Japan. I thought I wanted to go there again. Shall we meet again, if possible? I'm looking forward to meeting you. See you!! Bye!! Shin

Examiner Comments

In this script, only the second content element has been adequately dealt with. Although the candidate sounds enthusiastic ('I could enjoy'), this does not amount to thanking the friends. With regard to the third point, the candidate suggests meeting again, but doesn't mention where. Two content elements are therefore unsuccessfully dealt with.

Band: 2

SAMPLE C (Test 2, Question 6: e-mail to friends)

Dear Mary and Fred

Are you already missing me? I'm very well. the travel back was good.
I really loved that peacefull place. I'm so thankfull for all and I'd like to offer you a dinner in my home next saturday. What do you think?

See you
Leticia

Examiner Comments

This is a very good attempt, covering all content elements appropriately. Although language errors are present, they do not affect the clarity of the message, which would have a positive effect on Mary and Fred.

Band: 5

Part 3

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE D (Test 2, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

Dear John,

The first and most important issue is not to reduce the food you eat dayly. You can change the menu and the way you eat but if you start a diet by yourself the first thing you'll lose is your health.

You can find many good gyms and if you want I can send the names for you in another letter. However, you don't need necessarily to go to a gym to stay fit. Some small changes to your life can do a big difference. For example, you can start by walking some time during the morning or in the lunch time.

I hope you don't have any health problem and it would be nice if you went to a doctor for a check-up before starting any exercise.

Best regards,

Fabio

Examiner Comments

This is a very good attempt, showing confident use of language in an appropriate letter of advice. The range of structures and vocabulary used is wide and occasionally above PET level. Errors are minor, due to ambition and all non-impeding, for example do a big difference. The letter reads very naturally.

Band: 5

SAMPLE E (Test 2, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

Hi, Lena
I'm so happy receive letter from you.
You asked me some advice? What can I tell you? If you want to be healthy all your live, try avoid tea, coffee, alcohol. Give up smoking, give up go to night clabs every friday and saturday. Take cold shower every day, 2 times per day - it will be better. Don't eat any sold and pepper food. Don't forgot about sport. Swimming (I think) - it is the best of all for your body and soul. If you don't like water you can go to a gim or choose for you fitness-programme. Common, try it.
But this are just advices. A part of them ban live happy. We need change our life-stily for it. Sometime it is very boring.
Good luck. Be strong girl and maybe by next year I will have seen your result.
Miss you, my darling.

Examiner Comments

This answer is ambitious but flawed by a high number of errors, some of which are quite basic, for example, Don't forgot about sport. As a letter, it flows and contains some excellent touches, for example the encouragement at the close, Be strong girl ... There is evidence of a range of vocabulary, for example, body and soul. It is also quite well organised and would have been in a higher band, had the accuracy been better.

Band: 3

SAMPLE F (Test 2, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

Dear Emma,

It's an easy way to keep fit and healthy.

Firstly, you must avoid all fat and junk foods. I know you really like Double Cheese Burger but it make a lot of bad effects to your health.

Secondly, you will try to eat fruits and vegetables because it's plenty of vitamins, the good sources of good health.

Thirdly, stop to smoke now. I know it's very hard for you to avoid it but I'm sure that you can do anything you want.

Finally, Go out! Swimming, jogging and going to Fitness club will help you keep in shape. I'm absolutely sure that if you can do everything above you will have a good heath and shape too.

Let's go!

take care,
Moou

Examiner Comments

This is a good attempt, showing fairly ambitious use of language and a more than adequate range of vocabulary, including nouns and expressions relevant to the topic, for example junk foods, vitamins, keep in shape. It is well organised and linked, requiring no effort by the reader. There are, however, some non-impeding errors.

Band: 4

SAMPLE G (Test 2, Question 8: 'An exciting adventure')

Once upon a time a monkey live on a big tree near a river. He was a clever monkey. He wants to go on the other side of river to see how the other animals live there and if they have a better food. He didn't know how to get to the other side of the river, expecialy because in the river was a lot of crocodiles.
One day he decided that he will build a boat of wooden plates. He get a wooden plates and some kind of cotton wool, so he made a boat. He put it into the water, but when he came on the middle of the river the boat crash down. He must to swim and the crocodiles was there. He swim on the other side of river very fast and crocodiles didn't eat him, but now he wasn't at home, he was on the other side of water and don't know how to get back!

Examiner Comments

This is a good attempt at a story, but due to the erratic control shown is held in Band 2. There are numerous errors, particularly in the use (or absence) of past tenses, as well as problems with word order in sentences. Some effort is required by the reader.

Band: 2

SAMPLE H (Test 2, Question 8: 'An exciting adventure')

An exciting Adventure

Last january I travelled, with a friend, by car during 33 days in Brasil.
In this trip we visited a lot of places and we saw many beatiful things
At the begining we had to drive more than 4.000 km to get into the first beach. When we arrived we drank lots of beers to celebrate the first part of our trip.
We were very tired because we had been driving for 42 hours.
After that we went to other beach. We ate fish with vegetables and fruit juice right after we had drunk 20 beers!
To summarize our exciting trip, we spent one month travelling, drinking beer and visiting the beachs of the Brazilian coast.

Examiner Comments

This is a very good answer, showing confident and ambitious use of language. The story, a first-person narrative, is appropriate to the title and is well organised. There is a good range of accurately-produced tenses and some range of vocabulary. Errors are minor, non-impeding and mainly in spelling, for example, begining...beachs.

Band: 5

SAMPLE I (Test 2, Question 8: 'An exciting adventure')

An Excited Adventure

Long time ago. I was in Colombia with my best friend and her boyfriend, and we wanted to do something different becuase everithing was boring at our age, so we rented a car, started to drive around the country and finally we arrived to cartagena, with only £50 each, then we rented a small boat, went to an island in to the pacific ocean, we camping in the midle of the beach about 10 days. We fished, cooked, swam, oh! we really enjoyed that, and when we come back our parents wanted to kill us! They were very worried and upset with us, I'm felt very bad, and gave they an apologiaze, but now we laughing, remember our first trip.

Examiner Comments

This is an adequate attempt, although the mis-copying in the title is an unfortunate start. There are a number of mainly non-impeding errors and the range used is adequate for the task set. There is some attempt at organisation, including a suitable ending (even if inaccurately produced).

PART 1 Now open your question paper and look at Part 1.

There are seven questions in this part. For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick in the box below it.

Before we start, here is an example.

What's the time?

Woman: Have you got the time?
Man: Yes, it's twenty past three.

[pause]

The first picture is correct so there is a tick in box A.

Look at the three pictures for question 1 now.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear each recording twice.

One. When and where are they meeting?

Woman: What time are we meeting Jane?
Man: At half past seven outside the restaurant.
Woman: I told her to wait inside, at a table.
Man: I know, but she said she'd prefer to meet us outside.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Two. What will Chris get for his birthday?

Girl: It's Chris's birthday on Friday. What shall we get him?
Boy: Mmm, it's difficult. Tapes? CDs? But he's already got a lot of those …
Girl: We could get him something to wear. No, let's get him a book on sport – he's really keen on that.
Boy: Why not?

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Three. What does Mr Jones look like?

Man: So, could you describe Mr Jones for me please, madam?
Woman: Well, he's about 40 years old, bald, with a moustache. He's got large ears and he wears glasses.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Four. Where is he going to plant the tree?

Woman: Where are you going to plant the tree? By the front door?
Man: No, that would be silly. It'll grow too big. I'm going to put it at the back of the garage. When it's grown, it'll give us some shade in the summer.
Woman: I thought it would be better right at the other end of the lawn.
Man: Oh, no.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Five. What is the man going to buy?

Man: Shall I get some fruit for the picnic?
Woman: Yes, can you get some oranges and bananas?
Man: I'm not very keen on oranges. How about grapes instead?
Woman: They're so expensive at the moment. Just get the bananas.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Six. Which is Gary's room?

Woman: Look, Gary's sent us a postcard of his hotel, and he's put a cross to show us his window!
Man: Ah, right in the middle.
Woman: Yes, he says he wanted a room on the top floor, but the only room available was on the floor below that.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Seven. Which is the best vehicle for the man?

Woman: Good morning, sir, how can I help you?
Man: Well, I'd like to hire a car, please. Something fast and comfortable, with enough room for four adults and a child.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

That is the end of Part 1.

[pause]

PART 2 Now turn to Part 2, questions 8–13.

You will hear a recorded message about an arts festival.

For each question, put a tick in the correct box. You now have 45 seconds to look at the questions for Part 2.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Message: This is the Arts Festival Box Office. There is no one here to take your call, but do not hang up, as further information follows.

The Festival begins on the 12th of May and continues to the 28th. There are things happening in several parts of the town itself, and outside it.

At the Theatre Royal, there will be a series of concerts, starting with jazz singer Elaine Delmar on the 12th of May. George Melly brings his own special kind of jazz and fun to the theatre on the 13th of May. On Thursday the 19th of May, there is the opera Faust. For classical music fans, the Brodsky String Quartet appear on the 23rd of May.

There are also concerts at the Corn Exchange. For people who prefer dance music, we have the London All Stars Steel Band on Sunday the 15th of May. On Thursday the 19th of May we welcome back the Viennese Gala Orchestra, who are regular performers at the Festival. Finally, also at the Corn Exchange, there will be a series of jazz concerts each Friday at 1 o'clock. During these lunch-time concerts a bar will be open for the sale of wine and we are offering free soft drinks. Sandwiches will also be on sale. Light meals can be bought in the restaurant afterwards.

There are various other musical performances in the cathedral, and poetry readings in one of the town's churches. The Film Society has arranged to show a film of Mozart's opera Don Giovanni at the theatre. Our programme has full details.

Ickworth House, just outside the town, is joining in the Festival as usual. There is a guided walk around Ickworth Park on Sunday the 15th, which will last about two and a half hours. Also, on the 19th of May, we have a special concert of piano music, given by Oliver Davies in the beautiful Ickworth Library. The price of tickets includes coffee and biscuits and you are advised to book early, as this is always especially popular.

For more information, send for our Festival programme or visit the Box Office from 10.00 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays to Fridays, or 12.00 to 8 p.m. on Saturdays. Bookings can be made in person (cash, cheque or credit card), by post (cheques only), or by telephone (credit cards only). We also accept credit card bookings by fax, on 0284 706035. For these bookings, you must use our booking form.

Thank you for calling.

[pause]

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

[pause]

PART 3 Now turn to Part 3, questions 14–19.

You will hear someone talking on the radio about a Language Study Fair.

For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

You now have 20 seconds to look at Part 3.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Organiser: If you're studying English, the Language Study Fair that's being held this month will certainly interest you. The show is taking place between the 17th and 19th of March at the National Education Centre. It aims to answer all your questions about self-study (that's studying by yourself), whatever your level.

The Language Study Fair provides a perfect opportunity for you to see, compare and get advice on everything that's available to help you improve the way you study. Over 350 leading producers of educational materials will be present. Come along to this, and you won't waste your money in the future on materials that are out-of-date, or books that you just don't need.

We've got lots of different things for you to see and hear. There will be stands showing different types of self-study textbooks and talks by educational speakers on the best ways to study by yourself. You'll be able to see the latest furniture available for people who study at home. We're sure you'll also enjoy watching people using the latest computer programs, which can make studying English alone so much easier.

This is your chance to make good decisions about what you buy. You can attend the fair between nine-thirty and five on Thursday and Friday, and from nine-thirty to four on Saturday.

Tickets cost £5 each, or £3 if you're a full-time student. All tickets can be booked by ringing the ticket hotline. The number is 984 7711. Parking can be really difficult around the National Education Centre. However, an all-day space can be booked for only £2.50 per vehicle.

So, we look forward to seeing you there!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 3.

[pause]

PART 4

Now turn to Part 4, questions 20–25.

Look at the six sentences for this part. You will hear a conversation between a girl, Kate, and a boy, George.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick in the box under B for NO.

You now have 20 seconds to look at the questions for Part 4.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Kate: I don't remember much of that lecture. The doctor gave me this medicine for my cough, but I don't like it – it seems to make me awfully sleepy and I can't follow my lectures.

George: Well, if you don't take it, none of us will be able to follow our lectures – all we'll hear is you coughing!

Kate: Oh dear, do you think I'll annoy everybody?

George: Yes. You could study at home for a couple of days – you know, have some time off until it gets better.

Kate: Oh I couldn't do that! I'd miss too much and I get really uncomfortable when I have a lot of catching up to do. Last year I missed a whole week when I fell off my bike and had that enormous bandage on my hand. It took me ages to do all the work when I came back.

George: Oh, you worry too much. You can work at home. Just get Mr Gray to tell you which parts of the coursebook we'll be covering and read it yourself at home. All he does is go through the book anyway – you might as well do it yourself.

Kate: Oh, that's a bit unfair! I think Mr Gray's really nice. He's always willing to stay behind after class if you don't understand something.

George: Being 'really nice' and never in a hurry doesn't make him a good lecturer. Anyway I think you should look after your health first – and ours! If we sit in that small, hot room with you for the next three days, we'll all have your cough by the end of it.

Kate: Mmm, perhaps you're right. I don't care about myself, but I wouldn't like other people to blame me for their illnesses. I have got a bit of a temperature now, too – so maybe I'll go and see Mr Gray after lunch and tell him I won't be at this afternoon's lecture.

George: Or the next two … come on, you've got to get better.

Kate: I suppose you're right.

George: Then we can all go out as we planned at the weekend.

Kate: OK then, I don't want to miss that … and I do feel ill …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 4.

[pause]

You now have six minutes to check and copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

Note: Teacher, stop the tape here and time six minutes. Remind students when there is one minute remaining.

That is the end of the test.

Task-specific Mark scheme

The postcard should incorporate the following points:

i why the student has moved ii some information on the facilities the town has iii something the student dislikes about the town

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE A (Test 3, Question 6: Postcard to a penfriend)

Hi Susan I have sended this postcard to you because, I would like you to see how the town look like I'm sorry I havn't call you before I leave, because I hasn't got enough time and I didn't explained to you why I has to moved. The recent I has to moved because, my parent they're cheanged their job to this town that why I have moved over here. And this Town has a beutyful old bliding. So I hope you will come and visit me soon.

Examiner Comments

One content element has been omitted (what the candidate dislikes about the town), so the answer can receive a maximum mark of 3. The other two elements are adequately dealt with, although language errors cause some effort to be required by the reader.

Band: 3

SAMPLE B (Test 3, Question 6: Postcard to a penfriend)

Hello Joana. How are you?

I hope you are fine.

I have moved recently to this town because we have more opportunities to have a better life. We can travel far every where by public transport so faster as you can't imagine, and taxis are cheap too. If you want see the town you can buy a ticket for one day by bus and you could visit many monuments.

The problem are the pickpockets we have to be carefull.

Examiner Comments

All content elements are covered appropriately. Although the answer exceeds the word limit, the content is wholly relevant. Language errors are present, but don't impede the reading of the message.

Band: 5

SAMPLE C (Test 3, Question 6: Postcard to a penfriend)

Dear my friend,
I'm in a new town. I had an offer my old boss. It was a good opportunity for me. So I decided to move that country. It is a good place but I don't like living here. I have already missed my country. I think people who lives here isn't friendly and I don't like the weather. During the day some times it's sunny and sometimes it's rainy.
Can you come here in December in your free time. We can have a good time especially at the weekends. There were lots of historical places here and we can go some interesting places in the nights. We saw lots of places.

Examiner Comments

All three content elements are adequately dealt with, but the length of the answer and the language errors affect the clarity of the message slightly, requiring occasional effort by the reader.

Band: 4

Part 3

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE D (Test 3, Question 7: 'It was a fantastic party')

It was a fantastic party. I hadn't expected it will be so cool! There were a lot of people from our school I hadn't met before. We danced, spoke, drunk a bit and there was very friendly atmosphere. I meet there my old friends I hadn't see since my birthday. All of us enjoed the party till the moment when parents of the hoste of the party sudenly came back from their trip they had started crying and soon, one by one, we all slipped out of the house, and afterwards, having considered the situation decided don't pay much intention to the incident and to go to continue our evening at enouthere place

Examiner Comments

This is a good attempt, showing confident and ambitious use of language, which, with fewer errors, would have achieved Band 5. Errors are non-impending, though cause a little effort to be rerquired by the reader. There is a good range of structures and vocabulary and some natural expression, for example, ... one by one, we all slipped out of the house ...

Band: 4

SAMPLE E (Test 3, Question 7: 'It was a fantastic party')

It was a fantastic party. I'm arrived at 9 o'clock and met a so many people from differents countries, I spoke with a Italian girl about her country and she told me some difference with a London, I told her about Colombian and the differents places that she can know and the differents cultures in the same country.

I danced with a lot of girls but one of them impact me, she was dressing with a sexy clothes and she looked beatifull she's from Sweden her name is Solveie she was studing enginering. She gave me her phone number but I lose it.

I went to home at 3 am, I'm tired and slept till 11 am.

Examiner Comments

This is an adequate attempt at a story, though contains a number of non-impeding errors, particularly in tense formation, agreement and spelling. There is some attempt at organisation, although sentence structure is unwieldy at times.

Band: 3

SAMPLE F (Test 3, Question 7: 'It was a fantastic party')

It was a fantastic party. To now I can remember when I was eighteen years old, I take part in a big part. It was for new student of university and hold by university authority. I was very happy at that party because I had made a lot of friend in that party. Then some of them become my classmate. We were dancing beer song and drank. Oh It's a very fantastic party. We are talking about our future. I didn't what time a girl had joined us. She said that she would like become a famous modal and designer. She's very beatiful and she told she's very happy that night. Then we became a good friend, espically me. I always invite hime to climb mountain visity place ... . Before long time we in love each other. I very love him, and he is too. We have planed our future together. I think I'll got married soon. When I thought about that party I alway say that was a fantastic party.

Examiner Comments

The story requires some effort by the reader, mainly due to the high number of errors. The language is quite ambitious and there is some evidence of range, though this is marred by errors, for example It was for new student of university and hold by university authority.

Band: 2

SAMPLE G (Test 3, Question 8: Letter to a friend)

I'm looking for a great concerts but at the moment I can't find. Are here any interesting place for visit? So, if you want to come here. come, just come that's it.

Examiner Comments

This is a poor attempt, containing little information of relevance to the reader. It is difficult to understand at times, due to the lack of basic control.

Examiner Comments

This is an informative letter, showing fairly ambitious use of language. The letter is well organised, with some linking of sentences. There is a more than adequate range of structures and vocabulary, as well as some appropriately chatty expressions. There are, however, some non-impending errrors.

Test 3 transcript

This is the Cambridge Preliminary English Test number 3. There are four parts to the test. You will hear each part twice.

For each part of the test, there will be time for you to look through the questions and time for you to check your answers.

Write your answers on the question paper. You will have six minutes at the end of the test to copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

The recording will now be stopped. Please ask any questions now because you must not speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1 Now open your question paper and look at Part 1.

There are seven questions in this part. For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick in the box below it.

Before we start, here is an example.

What's the time?

Woman: Have you got the time?
Man: Yes, it's twenty past three.

[pause]

The first picture is correct so there is a tick in box A.

Look at the three pictures for question 1 now.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear each recording twice.

One. Where is the station?

Woman: Excuse me, can you tell us the way to the station?
Man: Take the second on the right and it's at the end of that road.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Two. Where did the woman put the calculator?

Man: Have you used my calculator?
Woman: Yes, can't you find it? I put it back on the desk.
Man: Where?
Woman: Next to the lamp, I think. No, wait a minute, it's on that pile of books.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Three. Where is Helen?

Man: Is Helen here?
Woman: Yes, she's over there, next to the man in the shorts.
Man: Who's that with her?
Woman: Her brother, I think.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Four. Which building was hit by lightning?

Man 1: Did you hear the storm last night?
Man 2: Of course. It was right over our apartment and seemed to hit something near the hotel.
Man 1: Yes, the factory near the church was hit by lightning. It's lucky no one was at work.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Five. What does the woman want to buy?

Woman: Now I've bought this skirt, I think I need some new shoes to go with it.
Man: Can't you wear your boots?
Woman: No, they're too old. I think it would look better with flat shoes.
Man: Come on then, let's try that shop over the road.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Six. Which picture does the woman decide to send?

Woman: My mother wants me to send her a photo of our new house. Which one shall I send?
Man: This one is nice, with the children playing in the back garden.
Woman: I prefer this one with you standing by the front door.
Man: Well, send her that one then.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Seven. Which hotel has the man chosen?

Woman: Have you decided which hotel you're going to stay in?
Man: Oh yes. It's the largest in the area, it's got four floors and it's right on the seashore … and there's an outdoor pool as well. So we'll be able to swim every day.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

That is the end of Part 1.

[pause]

PART 2 Now turn to Part 2, questions 8–13.
You will hear a radio interview with a man who works on an international camp.

For each question, put a tick in the correct box. You now have 45 seconds to look at the questions for Part 2.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Presenter: Hi there. On last week's programme we interviewed the man behind the idea of the International Camps. So I thought that this week you'd be interested to hear more about one of the Camps which will be held later this year. Over to you, Michael …

Michael: Thank you. Yes, the Camp is open to everyone between the ages of 18 to 23. You don't have to be a student – you don't even have to be employed, but you must be able to speak one foreign language in addition to your mother tongue.

Presenter: OK. And what about accommodation?

Michael: Well, the International Camp organisers supply tents which sleep up to four people but you are unlikely to know the people who you'll be sharing a tent with. The nationalities are mixed, so you'll be sharing with people who may not even speak your language!

Presenter: Sounds interesting. Who does the cooking at the Camp?

Michael: Everybody is expected to help with the running of the Camp. That means helping to prepare food, keeping the camp site clean and tidy, and so on. The Camp organisers are looking for people who can get along with others whatever happens.

Presenter: And is there anything you need to take?

Michael: Well as I've said, tents are provided but you'll need to bring your own pillow, knife, fork and spoon. If you get chosen, you're also asked to bring along photographs, postcards – anything that shows some of the traditions and customs of your own country. Everything goes into an exhibition at the start of the Camp, together with a huge map of the world showing the different countries people come from.

Presenter: And is there any entertainment?

Michael: Yes, there is. Everyone helps to provide the Camp entertainment. You are expected to sing, dance or play something musical – it doesn't matter how good or bad you are. There is a space on the form to write down what you can do.

Presenter: Sounds great fun. And what does it all cost?

Michael: Well, you have to find your own way to the Camp, so it's up to you whether you fly, cycle, walk, hitch-hike or whatever. The charge for a week's Camp is 300 dollars, but you'll have to change that into your own currency to get a better idea of the cost. You have to pay the full cost before you arrive, but you can pay in any currency you want or you can use a credit card if you have one. Right. Now for the phone number to ring …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 2.

[pause]

PART 3 Now turn to Part 3, questions 14–19.

You will hear a young woman who has applied for an office job talking about her jobs abroad.

For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

You now have 20 seconds to look at Part 3.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Interviewer: Hello, Miss Brownlow, come and sit down. Now, I'd like you to tell me more about the two years you spent abroad after leaving school.

Woman: Oh, right. Well, I decided to go abroad to see the world. I only intended staying for six months but in the end I stayed two years. First of all I worked for a family. I looked after their three children – all under the age of ten so I was kept very busy! I really liked the family, but after six months I was ready for a change although I didn't want to come home. Then I applied for a job in a hotel as a receptionist. That way I could still practise my languages. And it was really good because I had my own room in the hotel and I had all my meals there as well. And then the hotel closed down! But the manager offered me a job – in a bakery – it belonged to his brother – and I worked there for almost a year. At the beginning it was really hard because I had to get up so early in the morning – around four o'clock every day. But once I got used to that, it was great, because I'd finished work by two o'clock in the afternoon and the rest of the time was my own. But my parents thought I ought to come home and get a 'proper job'. I suppose they were right. So that's when I applied for the job with the Bank International in their foreign department and so I continued to use my languages.

Interviewer: You've had quite a lot of experience, haven't you! Now, if I could ask you …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 3.

[pause]

PART 4 Now turn to Part 4, questions 20–25.
Look at the six sentences for this part. You will hear a conversation between a father and his daughter, Sonia.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick in the box under B for NO.

You now have 20 seconds to look at the questions for Part 4.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Father: So – this time next week you'll be eighteen!
Sonia: I can't believe it.
Father: Neither can I – you don't seem a day over ten!
Sonia: Thank you!
Father: Anyway, have you thought what you'd like for your birthday?
Sonia: Well, I wondered whether I could have driving lessons.
Father: But we don't have a car!
Sonia: I know, but it would be useful to know how for when I have my own car.
Father: But you're still at school. How could you afford a car?!
Sonia: But most people in my class are having driving lessons.
Father: Well maybe their parents can afford a car. There's no point in having lessons if you can't practise.
Sonia: Maria says I can practise with her family's car.
Father: Oh, so you've discussed it with Maria! And I wonder what her parents would say if they knew. Do you know how much car insurance costs?
Sonia: Yes – it's expensive. But I could get a job on Saturday or Sunday and help pay for it. If I could drive I could probably get a job more easily – you know, delivering things or taking people to places.
Father: Yes – why not – my daughter Sonia with her own taxi service! Where do you think you're going to get a car?
Sonia: I thought I would drive other people's.
Father: Look, I know you want to be like your friends but it's not sensible to think of driving until you can afford your own car. Why don't I pay for you to have a lesson so that you can see what it's like? And, if the day ever comes when I'm rich, I'll be happy to help you buy a car. Now – what would you like for your birthday?
Sonia: OK, Dad – you win! But I'd still like to begin saving. Anyway, until then what I'd really like would be to go out to dinner with you and Mum to save Mum cooking.
Father: That's a good idea and I'll tell you what – we'll go by taxi!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 4.

[pause]

You now have six minutes to check and copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

Note: Teacher, stop the tape here and time six minutes. Remind students when there is one minute remaining.

That is the end of the test.

Task-specific Mark scheme

The e-mail should incorporate the following points:

i explanation of the good news
ii feelings about the news
iii enquiry about friend's family.

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE A (Test 4, Question 6: e-mail to a friend)

How are you?
I'm very well.
How are (the) your family?
I've got some good news about my exam.
In the middle of July, I took exam that to enter the university.
Yesterday I received good result about that.
So. I'm going to go to the university at next term of courese really nice.

Examiner Comments

This is a good answer, dealing with all three content elements almost within the word limit. However, the line-by-line presentation of the sentences affects the readability of the message slightly. The message also ends rather suddenly.

Band: 4

SAMPLE B (Test 4, Question 6: e-mail to a friend)

Hi,
I have got a good news. Next week I am going to go your country. I saved my money to work part time job. and already booked the ticket So I am so extied that. we can meet soon.

Examiner Comments

In this script, the first two content elements are sucessfully dealt with, but the third (asking about the reader's family) has been omitted. The script can only receive 3, therefore. Language errors are minor and do not affect the clarity of the message, such as it is.

Band: 3

SAMPLE C (Test 4, Question 6: e-mail to a friend)

Hi! How are you? Yesterday, I passed a examination, so I can go the upper class. I'd been afraid that I didn't pass it, but I could. I can't believe it. How about you? Is anything special?
By the way, how are your parents? It is long time since I met them. Please say hello to them.
I'll write soon, bye bye.

Examiner Comments

This is an excellent attempt, covering all three content elements appropriately. Although the writer has slightly exceeded the word limit, the content is relevant and natural. The answer reads well and requires no effort by the reader.

Part 3

The following sample answers can be used as a guide when marking.

SAMPLE D (Test 4, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

Hi!

Thank you for your letter. Learning English is still interesting and it is very good for me. I have good English teacher and also good classmates. They make me more interest to learn English.

Let me introduce my English class.

There are eleven nice students and one nice teacher.

The nice teacher's name is Pete! He is tall, handsome. Furthermore, he makes us very interest and feel comfortable in his class.

It is time to talk about my classmates!

They are all women except one man and they have variety nationality. For example South Korea (of course include me), Japan, Poland, Columbia and China etc.

Most of them have cheerful character and passion to learn English.

That is why I said that I like learning English.

I will send a letter soon again.

Take it easy!!

Examiner Comments

This is a good attempt, showing fairly ambitious use of language and with evidence of some range, for example cheerful character … passion to learn English. Sentence structure is sound and there is some linking of sentences. The answer requires only a little effort by the reader.

Band: 4

SAMPLE E (Test 4, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

I hope that you will happy with my answer,

Examiner Comments

This is an adequate answer with some attempt at organisation, although the linking of sentences isn't always maintained and sentence structure isn't totally sound. There are a number of non-impeding errors within an adequate range of structures and vocabulary.

Band: 3

SAMPLE F (Test 4, Question 7: Letter to a penfriend)

After classes we've got social program, so we're also meeting at the evenings and speeking English.

Examiner Comments

This answer is slightly short at 77 words. The language used is a little simple at times and there are a number of non-impeding errors, particularly in tenses and spelling. There is some attempt at organising the letter, although there is no closing formula or suitable final sentence.

Band: 2

They explained that it was an accident on the building and they so sorry and promise to fix up the window tomorrow, but I said what about tonight? My friend offer my one night at her place.

This is quite a good attempt at writing a story, showing some range and ambition, but it is flawed by a number of non-impeding errors in tenses, use of articles, and spelling. It requires some effort by the reader.

At only 69 words, this answer is too short and is clearly unfinished. The story does not actually refer to a broken window, although does appear to have some relevance to the title. However, because of impeding errors, it is difficult to understand.

SAMPLE I (Test 4, Question 8: 'A broken window')

This is a story of my english teacher's holiday. On last Sunday, he stayed at home with his son. and wife. After lunch, he went to the park in front of the house with his son, and was playing baseball. His son Tomy wants to be a baseball player in the future. So, he always played the baseball with his friends. But, on this day, Tomy was playing with his father. Mike wasn't good at the baseball. Tomy threw a ball, and Mike hit it!! The ball that Mike had hit broke a window of his house. of course, his wife lost her temper. He apologized for her. His wife said "It's ok. I don't mind. But, you must tidy up here. and from today, make meals on your own!!"
She was really angry.

Examiner Comments

This is a good story, showing fairly ambitious use of language and some range of structures and vocabulary, as well as some suitable expressions, for example lost her temper ... tidy up. The story is well organised and there is some linking of sentences.

Test 4 transcript

This is the Cambridge Preliminary English Test number 4. There are four parts to the test. You will hear each part twice.

For each part of the test, there will be time for you to look through the questions and time for you to check your answers.

Write your answers on the question paper. You will have six minutes at the end of the test to copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

The recording will now be stopped. Please ask any questions now because you must not speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1 Now open your question paper and look at Part 1.

There are seven questions in this part. For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick in the box below it.

Before we start, here is an example.

What's the time?

Woman: Have you got the time?
Man: Yes, it's twenty past three.

[pause]

The first picture is correct so there is a tick in box A.

Look at the three pictures for question 1 now.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear each recording twice.

One. Where are the woman's glasses?

Woman: I can never find my glasses!
Man: Where did you have them last?
Woman: I either had them when I was working, or I left them in the lounge when I was watching television.
Man: They're not in either of those places, you know – you're wearing them!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Two. What damage was done to the car?

Woman: I'm really annoyed. Someone's damaged my car again.
Man: Don't tell me someone's scratched the paint again!
Woman: No, not scratches this time. Someone's put paint all over the side.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Three. What did she bring?

Man: Did you remember to bring some toothpaste?
Woman: I think so. Wait a minute, I'll look … soap, towel, toothbrush. Er … no, sorry, I forgot.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Four. What did Sally buy?

Woman: I see you've been shopping, Sally. What have you got in the bag?
Sally: Well, I went into town to buy a new skirt, but I've come back with a T-shirt and a pair of jeans.
Woman: I thought you wanted some new shoes too.
Sally: Yes, I did. But I couldn't find any I liked.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Five. Where are the man and his grandma?

Man: Hello, Grandma, can I carry your case?
Grandma: Oh, that's nice of you. Thank you for coming to meet me. Travelling always makes me so nervous!
Man: Don't worry, we'll be in the car soon, and it won't take long to get home.
Grandma: Good, I'll be glad to get away from this noisy station.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Six. What would John like to be?

Teacher: What do you want to be when you leave school, John? You always wanted to be a professional footballer, didn't you?
Boy: Well, I did. I thought about being a doctor, too, but I don't think I could pass all the exams.
Teacher: What about being an engineer like your brother?
Boy: It's a nice idea – but I think I'd like to do what my dad does. He teaches maths.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

[pause]

Seven. Which pianist are the two people talking about?

Woman: I thought the most interesting pianist in the whole competition was Gavin Willow.
Man: Was he the tall one with long hair?
Woman: Well he was tall, but he had short, dark hair and a beard.
Man: Ah, yes, I know.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 1.

PART 2 Now turn to Part 2, questions 8–13.
You will hear a talk given to visitors to a fashion museum.

For each question, put a tick in the correct box. You now have 45 seconds to look at the questions for Part 2.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Guide: Welcome, ladies and gentlemen, to the Morecambe Museum of Fashion. Before we go up to the fashion exhibition 'Clothes of the Future', I would like to show you some slides on the screen, and say a few words about the history of fashion. I will also mention some of the important people in fashion. This will provide an introduction for you and will prepare you for the clothes that we're going to see in the exhibition.

As I'm sure you know, nowadays fashion is something that almost everybody enjoys. People of all age groups and all incomes usually have an interest in what they wear. But this has only recently happened, and I will tell you why.

Until the beginning of this century, it was only the rich who could afford to follow fashion. There were no factories to make many copies of the same article, as there are today. Rich men and women wore trousers, jackets and dresses which were made especially for them. This picture here shows a young lady being measured for a dress that she will have made by hand, exactly how she wants it to be. Ladies' clothes in those days were long and usually tight-fitting and made of heavy material.

However, the new century – the 1900s – brought new ideas. The important person at this time was Coco Chanel, who started making clothes in 1908, in Paris. Many people think she was the 20th century's most important influence on fashion. Chanel loved to wear loose-fitting clothes and produced jackets and skirts which everyone admired. Here's a picture of one of her ladies' suits. Even today people still wear styles like this when they want to look smart. Young Paris designers all began to produce simple clothes, and skirts started to get shorter.

The idea of special clothes for playing sports also became popular in the early 1920s. Things like long shorts and tennis clothes started to become fashionable. Soon factories produced these new styles more cheaply, and then many more people were able to enjoy fashion.

In 1947, after the second world war, Christian Dior used all the new materials available to produce a fashion which was known as the 'New Look'. As you can see in this picture, he made skirt lengths longer again.

Later, in the 60s, 'flower power' and student fashion were popular. In London, Mary Quant introduced short skirts. These were worn with boots that went up to the knee. Look at the white, shiny boots in this picture!

And now we come to today's exhibition. Some of the clothes you will see today will be very different from anything which you have seen before. The exhibition aims to take a look at the sort of clothes that we might wear in the next 50 years.

Let's go inside and have a look at the exciting clothes that are waiting for us …

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 2.

PART 3 Now turn to Part 3, questions 14–19.

You will hear a man talking about Tanya Perry's life.

For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

You now have 20 seconds to look at Part 3.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Interviewer: Hello and welcome. We're spending the first part of today's programme talking about Tanya Perry, and with me today is Ray Potter, her friend and colleague for many years …

Ray: Yes, well, I've known Tanya for nearly 20 years. Not many people know that she was born in London, in 1948. In 1952, her parents moved with Tanya and her brother to the north west. They lived in various places, before finally coming to Manchester in 1956.

Tanya spent a very happy period at school. In fact she was in the same class as Jack Peters, the famous poet. David Thompson, the artist, was also at the school – a couple of years below her, I think. So it was an interesting time for Tanya, who actually began to write short stories while she was at school. One of her stories appeared in the school magazine – I have a copy here. It's extraordinary, you can see a lot of her ideas starting to grow. When Tanya left school, she didn't go to university, as Jack Peters did, but got a job immediately. She was never interested in university life. What she wanted was to be part of the real world, to meet different people and get more experience of life. So in the early 1970s she became a waitress, working in what was then one of the most popular cafés in Manchester. She was writing at night and in 1975 she had her first play performed, at the Edinburgh Festival.

She gave up her day job the following year, to be able to write full-time. Several of her plays were performed, including one at the Court Theatre in London. This was where she met film director Robin Newgate, who she later married. Robin introduced her to the film world and, in 1979, she wrote the story which later became the film 'City Life', which Robin directed. It won the prize for best foreign film at an important French Film Festival in 1984.

Tanya could have moved to Hollywood then, but she was still married to the theatre – and to Robin – so she decided to stay here. Now she has 24 plays in print, 18 in translation, which makes her work very widely known all over the world.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 3.

[pause]

PART 4 Now turn to Part 4, questions 20–25.
Look at the six sentences for this part. You will hear a conversation between a man and a woman at home.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick in the box under B for NO.

You now have 20 seconds to look at the questions for Part 4.

[pause]

Now we are ready to start. Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

Man: What shall we do tonight? Shall we go out somewhere?
Woman: No, I'm tired. I've had a really hard day.
Man: That's a bit boring! Come on, let's go to a cinema or see that new play at the theatre.
Woman: Not tonight. Why don't we rent a video and stay in?
Man: Well, I'd rather go out … but if you're tired … OK. So what shall we have? How about that new Italian film?
Woman: No, far too serious for me. I'd fall asleep! Why can't we get something funny – a film with Rik Moranis or someone like that.
Man: A comedy? No thanks. I'm not wasting my money.
Woman: Well, I'll pay, if you're going to be difficult about it.
Man: I'm not being difficult – I just don't want to see a comedy.
Woman: Fine. What else do you suggest then?
Man: How about a Robert de Niro?
Woman: We've seen them all.
Man: Maybe, but they're great films. Let's watch one again.
Woman: Now you're suggesting something that's a real waste of money! And I hate seeing films twice, you know that.
Man: OK, OK. What, then?
Woman: Oh, forget it. We're obviously not going to agree anyway!
Man: No, I tell you what, you go down to the video shop and choose a film. Whatever it is, I'll watch it.
Woman: Really? And you won't be difficult or make me feel guilty?
Man: No – go on, off you go. I'll make something to eat while you're out.
Woman: Great. See you in a few minutes then.
Man: Bye.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[The recording is repeated.]

That is the end of Part 4.

[pause]

You now have six minutes to check and copy your answers on to the answer sheet.

Note: Teacher, stop the tape here and time six minutes. Remind students when there is one minute remaining.

That is the end of the test.
